Ask HN: How do you manage your time? :dfu I am currently trying to work on a side project a couple of hours a day after work. I work in a typical corporate environment and do some daily chores such as washing dishes, doing the laundry etc. Afterwards I spend my time either working or working on my side project. I know that the ideal situation would be that you would have 3-5 hours of solid worktime every day where you would work on your project. Unfortunately I am sometimes working from 9-6, 5-2 or I am even working on a project on my spare time (for some of you that may not make sense). Is there any technique how you manage your time? ===== xna I used to have a simple system, which went like this: 1. Set the alarm to wake up at the same time every day. 2. Set the alarm to go off once every 2 hours. 3. Leave for work at the same time every morning. 4. Work normal hours, then take a 5 minute break. 5. Left for home at the same time every evening. 6. Work normal hours, then take a 5 minute break. 7. Leave home at the same time every evening. 8. Rest/Recovery cycle of a single day. If you do that for a week.
